Dear Mr. Segal:

Thank you for inviting Director William J. Casey to address the Yale Political Union in New Haven this fall.

Due to official duties and travel schedules, Mr. Casey is unable to come to New Haven to debate with your group. However, an appropriate briefing on the Agency and Intelligence Community can possibly be arranged for members of the Union at our Headquarters Building sometime during the academic year when your group visits Washington. Last spring approximately 30 of your members attended such a briefing. If you are interested in scheduling a visit, please contact a member of my staff,
STAT [redacted] who will help arrange a date. Please keep in mind that foreign nationals are not permitted on the compound.

We wish the Union a successful 51st year.

Sincerely,

STAT [redacted]

Honorable William Casey

Dear Mr. Casey:

It is my great privilege to invite you to deliver a keynote address at a debate of the Yale Political Union this fall. The Union is the largest student organization at Yale, and has just completed its 50th Anniversary celebration. Since its founding in 1934, by Dean Acheson and Harvey Bundy among others, it has become a national forum for nonpartisan political discussion. Past speakers at the Union include Ronald Reagan, Jimmy Carter, Caspar Weinberger, Gary Hart, and Ed Koch. We would be honored if you would help us carry on this fine tradition in the upcoming fall term.

You are welcome, of course, to choose any subject on which you would like to speak. Perhaps you might wish to deliver a talk on some aspect of United States policy toward Central America or of international intelligence, for example. If it is possible for you to join us, we would be glad to discuss the details of topic and format — indeed, if you would prefer simply to address the body, rather than keynote a debate, this can be arranged. We would like to schedule this event sometime between the third week of September and the last week of November, 1985.

As is our custom, we would be happy to reimburse your travel expenses. Should you wish to spend the night in New Haven, we would be delighted to serve as your hosts. I look forward to hearing from you and hope we will have the pleasure of welcoming you to Yale this fall.

Sincerely yours,

Richard M. Segal
